

MedChi Building and Osler Hall Centennial Celebration

*Wednesday, May 13, 2009
MedChi Library Building, Osler Hall
1211 Cathedral Street
Baltimore, Maryland*

Hosted by Center for a Healthy Maryland, Inc., charitable affiliate of MedChi

MedChi Building and Osler Hall Centennial Celebration

*May 13, 2009
6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.*

Program

Welcome and Introduction	Allan D. Jensen, M.D. President, Center for a Healthy Maryland
Invocation	Rabbi Emeritus, Mark G. Loeb Beth El Congregation of Baltimore
Welcome to MedChi "Neighbors"	Allan D. Jensen, M.D.
210 Years of MedChi History	George Bone, M.D. Past President, MedChi Past President, Prince George's Medical Society
Greetings from University of Maryland	E. Albert Reece, M.D., Ph.D. Dean, School of Medicine & Vice President Medicine
Greetings from Johns Hopkins University	Edward D. Miller, M.D. Dean, School of Medicine Chief Executive Officer, Johns Hopkins Medicine
Introduction of Governmental Officials	Ronald C. Sroka, M.D. President, MedChi Past President, Anne Arundel Medical Society
Historic Significance of Building and Hall	Johns Hopkins Baltimore Heritage, Inc.
History of Maryland Medicine Campaign	Meena R. Abraham, Dr.P.H. Executive Director, Center for a Healthy Maryland
Thomas E. Hunt, Jr, M.D. Lectureship	Lisa B. Williams Executive Director, Baltimore City Medical Society
Homage to Sir William Osler	Thomas E. Hunt, Jr., M.D. Past President, Baltimore City Medical Society
Re-Dedication of the House	His Eminence William Cardinal Keeler Fourteenth Archbishop of Baltimore

*Hosted by Center for a Healthy Maryland, Inc., affiliate of MedChi, The Maryland State Medical Society
The Center carries out educational and charitable activities to fulfill the Medical Society's goals to serve as the foremost advocate and resource for physicians, patients, and public health.*