MedChí Building and Osler Hall Centennial Celebration

Wednesday, May 13, 2009 MedChí Líbrary Buílding, Osler Hall 1211 Cathedral Street Baltimore, Maryland

Hosted by Center for a Healthy Maryland, Inc., charitable affiliate of MedChi

MedChi Building and Osler Hall Centennial Celebration

May 13, 2009 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

Program

Welcome and Introduction Allan D. Jensen, M.D.

President, Center for a Healthy Maryland

Invocation Rabbi Emeritus, Mark G. Loeb

Beth El Congregation of Baltimore

Welcome to MedChí "Neighbors" Allan D. Jensen, M.D.

210 Years of MedChí History George Bone, M.D.

Past President, MedChi

Past President, Prince George's Medical Society

Greetings from University of Maryland E. Albert Reece, M.D., Ph.D.

Dean, School of Medicine & Vice President Medicine

Greetings from Johns Hopkins University Edward D. Miller, M.D.

Dean, School of Medicine

Chief Executive Officer, Johns Hopkins Medicine

Introduction of Governmental Officials Ronald C. Sroka, M.D.

President, MedChi

Past President, Anne Arundel Medical Society

Historic Significance of Building and Hall Johns Hopkins

Baltimore Heritage, Inc.

History of Maryland Medicine Campaign Meena R. Abraham, Dr.P.H.

Executive Director, Center for a Healthy Maryland

Thomas E. Hunt, Jr, M.D. Lectureship Lisa B. Williams

Executive Director, Baltimore City Medical Society

Homage to Sír William Osler Thomas E. Hunt, Jr., M.D.

Past President, Baltimore City Medical Society

Re-Dedication of the House His Eminence William Cardinal Keeler

Fourteenth Archbishop of Baltimore

Hosted by Center for a Healthy Maryland, Inc., affiliate of MedChi, The Maryland State Medical Society The Center carries out educational and charitable activities to fulfill the Medical Society's goals to serve as the foremost advocate and resource for physicians, patients, and public health.