

Physician Resources for Buprenorphine Treatment

BECOME CERTIFIED TO PRESCRIBE: Requirements for physicians to be eligible to prescribe buprenorphine can be found at the CSAT Buprenorphine Information Center.

REPORT A COMPLAINT: Maryland Department of Health and Mental Hygiene Medicaid provider hotline 410. 767.5503 or 800.445.1159

FIND A CERTIFIED PHYSICIAN: Patients or non-certified physicians can access the name of a buprenorphine certified practitioner or treatment program through the Substance Abuse Mental Health Services Administration's (SAMHSA) Buprenorphine Physician Locator.

FIND A PHYSICIAN MENTOR: The American Society of Addiction Medicine offers a National Mentoring Network for physicians treating opioid dependence.

FIND PHYSICIANS/FIND PATIENTS: The National Alliance of Advocates for Buprenorphine Treatment (NAABT) offers a Physician/Patient Matching System for both providers and patients looking for buprenorphine treatment.

FIND THE LATEST SCIENCE: The National Institute of Drug Addiction provides physicians and other health professionals the latest science-based facts on drug abuse and addiction.

ADDITIONAL RESOURCES:

Maryland Alcohol and Drug Abuse Administration

Baltimore Buprenorphine Initiative

CSAT Buprenorphine Information Center

Center for Substance Abuse Treatment

Substance Abuse Mental Health Services Administration's \(SAMHSA\)

National Institute of Drug Addiction

American Society of Addiction Medicine

American Academy of Addiction Psychiatry

American Psychiatric Association