

“I just don’t have the time to screen my patients for domestic violence.”

Did you know that an inquiry about a history of domestic abuse generally takes as much time as asking about other life-threatening health problems?

Consider the following:

Source: Elaine J. Alpert, M.D., M.P.H., Boston University

Know what to ask and where to refer.

Take the time.
Save a life.

1211 Cathedral Street • Baltimore, Maryland 21201 • 410-539-0872

Statewide 1-800-MD-HELPS (634-3577)